

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WAIKATO
Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

Lecturer/Senior Lecturer (Fixed-term 3 years)

Department of Computer Science
Faculty of Computing and Mathematical Sciences

New Zealand's best-ranked Computer Science Department is inviting applications from suitably qualified individuals to join the Department. Academics in their early or mid-career, who are strong researchers and teachers, are encouraged to apply for this position.

We have a range of internationally recognised research programmes including the WAND computer networks group that this position will be associated with. This group is well known for its work on passive and active measurement and has strong connections to both service providers and equipment manufacturers such as Endace.

You will be expected to contribute to the undergraduate teaching programme and teach advanced and graduate level courses in the areas of networks and cyber security. You will also be involved in research and supervision in network and cyber-security, contribute to knowledge development through scholarship and publication and to participate as appropriate in administration within the Department. A PhD (or near completion of for the Lecturer position) in computer science or a related discipline is required.

Current salary range for Lecturers is NZ$65,886 to $80,441 per year and for Senior Lecturers is NZ$82,468 to $110,614 per year. The level of appointment will be dependent on the qualifications and experience of the successful applicant.
